CZOLGOSZ UNDER SENTENCE OF DEATH SHOWS HIMSELF A COWARD

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Leon F. Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was sentenced this afternoon to be electrocuted in Auburn State Prison during the week beginning October 23, 1901. Before sentence was pronounced, the assassin evinced a desire to speak, but he could not get his voice above a whisper, and his words were repeated to the Court by his counsel.

"There was no one else but me," the prisoner said, in a whisper. "No one else told me to do it, and no one paid me to do it. I was not told anything about the crime and I never thought anything about it until a couple of days before I committed the crime." Czolgosz sat down. He was quite calm, but it was evident that his mind was flooded with thoughts of his own distress. His eyes were dilated, making them appear very bright. His cheeks were a trifle pale and his outstretched hand trembled. The guards put the handcuffs on his wrists. He looked at one of the officers. There was an expression of the profoundest fear and helplessness in his eyes. He glanced about at the people who crowded the room in efforts to get a look at him. The prisoner's eyelids rose and fell tremulously and then he fixed his gaze upon the floor in front of him. At this point Judge Titus came over to the prisoner and bade him goodbye. Czolgosz replied very faintly, letting his eyes rest upon the man who had been his counsel.

"Goodbye," he said, meekly. Czolgosz was then hurried downstairs and through the "tunnel" of sobs to the jail, where he will remain until removed to Auburn to pay the penalty for his crime. Although the time announced for convening the court was 2 o'clock, every seat and every foot of standing room was occupied before 1 o'clock, and scores were clamoring outside for admission. The doors were locked and no more were admitted to the room. The prisoner was brought into the room at 1:55. Five minutes later Justice White took his place upon the bench.

District Attorney Penney said: "If your honor please, I move sentence in the case of the People versus Leon F. Czolgosz. Stand up, Czolgosz." Clerk Fisher swore the prisoner, and his record was taken by the District Attorney as follows: Age, 28 years; nativity, Detroit; residence, Broadway, Newark, Buffalo; occupation, laborer; married or single, single; degree of education, common school and parochial; religious instruction, Catholic; parents, father living, mother dead; temperate or intemperate, temperate; former conviction of crime, none.

The clerk of the Court then asked: "Have you any legal cause to show now why sentence of the Court should not now be pronounced against you?" "I cannot hear that," replied the prisoner.

Clerk Fisher repeated his question and Czolgosz replied: "I would rather have this gentleman here speak," looking toward District Attorney Penney. "I can hear him better." Mr. Penney then said to the prisoner: "Czolgosz, the Court wants to know if you have any reason to give why sentence should not be pronounced against you. Have you anything to say to the judge? Yes or no?"

The prisoner did not reply, and Justice White, addressing the prisoner, said: "In that behalf, what you have a right to say relates explicitly to the subject in hand here at this time and which the law provides, why sentence should not now be pronounced against you and defined by the statute. The first is that you may claim that you are insane, the next is that you have good cause to offer either in arrest of the judgment about to be pronounced against you or for a new trial. Those are the grounds specified by the statute in which you have a right to speak at this time, and you are at perfect liberty to do so if you wish."

The prisoner replied: "I have nothing to say about that."

The Court said: "Are you ready?" Mr. Penney replied: "Yes."

"Have you anything to say?" asked Justice White.

"Yes," replied the prisoner. "I think he should be permitted to make a statement in exculpation of his act, if the Court please," said Judge Titus.

The Court replied: "That will depend upon what his statement is." Justice White then said: "Have you (speaking to Judge Titus) anything to say in behalf of the prisoner at this time?"

"I have nothing to say within the definition of what your honor has read," replied the attorney, "but it seems to me in order that the innocent should not suffer by this defendant's crime, the Court should permit him to exculpate, at least, his father, brother and sisters."

From the Court—"Certainly, if that is the object of any statement he wishes to make, proceed."

The prisoner said: "There was no one else but me. No one told me to do it, and no one paid me to do it. I was not told anything about the crime, and I never thought anything about murder until a couple of days before I committed the crime."

Judge Titus repeated both these statements.

Then Justice White passed sentence, as follows: In taking the life of our beloved President, you committed a crime which shocked and outraged the moral sense of the civilized world. You have confessed that guilt, and after learning all that at this time can be learned from the facts and circumstances of the case, twelve good jurors have pronounced you guilty and have found you guilty of murder in the first degree.

You have said, according to the testimony of credible witnesses and yourself, that no other person aided or abetted you in the commission of this terrible act. God grant it may be so. The penalty for the crime for which you stand convicted is fixed by the statute, and it now becomes my duty to pronounce it.

The sentence of the Court is that, at the week beginning October 23, 1901, at the place, in the manner and means prescribed by law, you suffer the punishment of death.

Remove the prisoner.

Czolgosz stood erect, looking straight at the judge. He did not tremble; not a muscle quivered. As soon as the death sentence was finished he took his seat in the same indifferent manner that has characterized him throughout the trial. He was brought to his feet by the officers at 2:20. They shackled him and led him away to the jail, while the crowd surged after him, and the officers had to force a passage for the assassin from the courtroom. Though elation and satisfaction were written on every face, there was no applause and no demonstration of any kind on the part of the spectators.

Czolgosz was taken from Buffalo to Auburn State Prison tonight to await death by electrocution. Sheriff Caldwell and sixteen men took the prisoner in a special car attached to the regular New York Central train. The train left at 10:06 p. m., and the railroad officials said that an effort to reach Auburn at 2:12 o'clock would be made, which was schedule time. Sheriff Caldwell arranged for the departure, and his moves were kept so secret and were so cleverly managed that no one but the guards, the railroad men and the newspaper men who were in the jail knew that the assassin was being smuggled out of the jail.

Auburn, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Czolgosz reached the Auburn State prison at 3 o'clock this (Friday) morning, and on entering the penitentiary collapsed completely.

OPERATION UPON FUNSTON

Manila, Sept. 22.—General Frederick Funston, who has been in the hospital, suffering from appendicitis, for about a week, has undergone a successful operation.

PROMPTLY FOUND GUILTY

Buffalo, Sept. 24.—Leon Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was today found guilty of murder in the first degree. The wheels of justice moved swiftly. The trial of the assassin consumed eight hours and twenty-six minutes, and covered a period of only two days. Practically all of this time was occupied by the prosecution in presenting a case so clear, so conclusive, that even had the prisoner entered a plea of insanity it is doubtful if the jury would have returned a verdict different from the one rendered today.

The announcement made this afternoon by the attorneys for Czolgosz that the eminent alienists summoned by the Erie County Bar Association and by the District Attorney to examine Czolgosz and to determine his exact mental condition had declared him to be perfectly sane, destroyed the only hope of a defense.

Before adjournment Justice White announced that he would pronounce sentence on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The prisoner was taken at once through the tunnel under Delaware avenue back to the jail. To all appearances he was in no way affected by the result of the trial.

OAHU CHURCH MATTERS

The Oahu Association of Ministers met again in Kawaiahao church yesterday afternoon but did very little work outside of discussing the candidacy of two men to the theological seminary of the city. It was decided that both should clear their records before being allowed to enter.

The Sunday School Association also met at Kawaiahao church yesterday. H. K. Meenano was elected chairman and D. W. Kellogg, secretary. Moses Nakulua reported an encouraging situation in all the Sunday schools within the District of Kona. He urged that the Sunday schools throughout the island be open to all members of all denominations, whether they be Catholic, Mormon or Kekihi-Hoomana. Judge Aikue of Waikane, superintendent of the Sunday schools of the windward side of this island, read a hopeful report of the schools in his district.

Emma Goldman Released

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Emma Goldman, the anarchist lecturer, was liberated today after two weeks' incarceration following the assassination of the President. Attorney Owens, for the city, informed Magistrate Prindiville that the upper court had freed the men named as Miss Goldman's co-conspirators, and that there was no evidence against her. "Dismissed for want of prosecution. Call the next case," said the Justice, briefly, and in a moment Miss Goldman was shaking hands with her anarchist friends who were in court. A curious crowd watched her depart, but there was no demonstration.

A Message to Men!!!

This is a message to men. It is to men who want to feel like men, to look like men and act like men. This is to men who lack courage, whose nerves are shaky, whose eyes have lost the sparkle, whose brains are muddled, ideas confused, sleep restless, confidence gone, spirits low and easily depressed, who are backward, hesitating, unable to venture because they are afraid of failure, who want somebody to decide for them, who are weak, puny, restless. It is to men who have part or all of these symptoms and want new life, new force, new vigor. I offer it to you in my wonderful DR. McLAUGHLIN'S ELECTRIC BELT.

It has restored health and strength to thousands of weak and impotent men.

If used as I direct it is a positive cure and cannot fail. It gives the vitalizing power of electricity, without burning or blistering, to every weakened part, developing the full vigor of manhood. It removes all the effects of indiscretions or excesses forever.

I guarantee a cure. If I say I can cure I don't ask any one to take chances on my invention. It doesn't cost you anything if I fail. SPECIAL NOTICE.—If you have an old belt of another make which has burned and blistered you, or one that did not possess electricity, bring it in and I will allow one-half the price of mine for it.

I give a free test to call who call. If you can't call I will send you my beautifully illustrated book with full information free. Call or write now. Don't delay.
